Methodist Women Plan Details of Monthly Meetings

Mrs. Fay Rauss will entertain the members and friends of Circle No. 3 at a 12:30 o'clock luncheon in her home, 708 Aca-cia avenue, on Tuesday Sept. 7.

Mrs. Vita Paxton will conduct the business meeting and devotions will be led by Mrs. Mary Lewis. Mrs. Rauss will review the study book.

The September meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 9 in the social rooms of the church.

A brief business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Alice Palmer, president at 11:00 a.m. Mrs. Clyde Ruckman will lead devotions. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 by Circle No. 2 with Mrs. Sara Hogue as chairman. A surprise program is being planned.

Northerners Enjoy Much Hospitality

Master Sgt. and Mrs. Herbert E. Blackwell, of 2117 Torrance boulevard, have been entertaining as their house guests his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Blackwell of Antioch. M/Sgt. Blackwell's brother is foreman at Columbia Steel's Pittsburg plant.

Activities for the foursome included luncheon Saturday at the home of Mrs. Herbert E. Blackwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sieken, at Anaheim; dinner the same evening at the Pontana home of Mrs. Lucy Edmunds and the weekend as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Altier of San Bernardino. Stationed at Fort Ord, M/Sgt. Blackwell had recently returned from 21 months duty in Korea. He has served in the Army for 16 years.

WAGNER BABY ARRIVES AT NAVAL HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner of 2248 W. 250th street are the parents of a baby son born at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Long Beach Tuesday, Aug. 24. Weighing 7 lb., 14 oz., the little boy has been named Frederick Don. His Daddy, who is completing training at the U. S. Navy Submarine School in New London, Conn., will graduate Friday of this week and will leave immediately for Lomita to get his first view of the baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Arza Veatch of 250th street are maternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wagner of Goshute, Indiana are the baby's paternal grandparents.

Rebekah District Officers Report Official Visits

Deputy President Winifred Jones of District No. 66, a Torrance resident and Deputy Marshal Sadie Tibbet, of Manhattan Beach, have been attending several of the Rebekah lodges in the district for the purpose of issuing instruction to the new officers.

Neta Dena Lodge at Gardena was hostess to them on Aug. 18, while on Wednesday Aug. 18 they were at Gold Crest Lodge at El Segundo, where both were recipients of lovely orchid corsages. Welcome Lodge at Inglewood planned an enjoyable evening for them on Aug. 19 and they sojourned to Home Lodge at West Los Angeles on Aug. 20. At each lodge the ladies were welcomed and given lovely corsages.

On Thursday evening of last week Silver Wave Lodge at Santa Monica exemplified the Rebekah degree for the pleasure of the deputies and added two members to their lodge roll.

Starting this month Mrs. Jones will make official visits to each lodge in the district and her itinerary will include Welcome Lodge at Inglewood on Sept. 14, at which time she will install their recording secretary; Home Lodge at West Los Angeles on Sept. 17 and Neta Dena at Gardena on Sept. 20.

It is hoped that a representative group of Rebekah Lodge members will attend the meetings during the official visits.

Brownie Day Camp Workers Are Guests at 'Thank You' Tea

As a courtesy for the workers in Brownie Day Camp this summer Mrs. Virginia Reid and Mrs. Mavis Cook entertained at an attractively appointed tea held in the patio of Mrs. Jean Rothman's Gardena home.

Attending were Mesdames Jackie Disario, Roxie Cook, Frankie Brown, Lois Babeock, T. G. Woofter, Elizabeth Cook, all of Torrance; Margaret Jeffrey, Seaside Ranchos; Betty Brown, Hollywood Riviera; Mildred Apple, Miller, Lucille Cromer, Ruth Ruskin, Jean Rothman, Gardena; Good and Sally Kirsch, Lomita.

At the tea table, lovely with summer blossoms and gleaming silver, Mrs. Rothman and Mrs. Apple poured.

BABY BOY NEW FAMILY MEMBER AT DAVIS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis of 22916 Cabrillo avenue are receiving congratulations following the arrival of a baby son on Aug. 19 weighing 8 1/2 lbs. The little fellow was named Clark Stevens Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McEwen and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Davis, maternal and paternal grandparents, reside in Paradise.

MRS. RAYMOND L. MARSH the former Shirley Peterson

Colonial Appointments Mark Lovely Nuptials

One of the lovely weddings of the month took place at 7 o'clock Friday evening in First Methodist church when Miss Shirley Anne Peterson became the bride of Raymond L. Marsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Field of 1519 Greenwood avenue.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Palmer, of 1501 W. 215th street, was given in marriage by her uncle George C. Abel, in the absence of her father.

Using a family heirloom wedding ring almost 100 years old, Rev. Clyde E. Ruckman officiated in the presence of 200 guests. The heavy gold band ring was first used at the marriage of the bridegroom's great-grandmother Mrs. Carrie Misner.

The former Miss Peterson wore an exquisite gown of white brocade fashioned along Colonial lines with cap sleeves and a berth. Her fingertip veil of illusion cascaded from a coronet trimmed in small pearls and she carried orange blossoms centered with a removable orchid corsage.

Miss Catherine Ann Mock, of San Francisco, maid of honor, wore a pink marquisette gown. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pink roses. George Korrick was ring bearer. Ronald L. Mock of San Francisco attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Fred Mumby, San Pedro; Harold Hyman of San Francisco and Edward Misner Jr. of Los Angeles.

Miss Helen Lockwood played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Miss Dina Zuliani of San Pedro, who sang "Ich Liebliche" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Following the vow exchange a reception was held in the church parlors. Magnolias and lighted tapers in candelabra adorned the table where a four-tiered wedding cake was served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Curtis Peterson of Long Beach.

Mrs. S. F. Samuelson and Miss Mary DiCoco of San Pedro presided at the guest book was Miss Rita Gasing with Miss Eunice Gasing at the gift table.

Mrs. Palmer received her guests in grey brocade, faile with matching feather hat and pink accessories and Mrs. Field attended in brown crepe with matching accessories. The mothers wore identical corsages of pink Pinocchio roses.

Following a week's honeymoon in Mexico Mr. and Mrs. Marsh will establish their home in Berkeley, where they will attend University of California. Mrs. Marsh is in her junior year and her husband, a graduate of UCLA, will study law.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS IN DIVERSIFIED SUMMER PROGRAM

The Los Angeles Council of Camp Fire Girls, a Community Chest agency, is participating in the National Project, "Camp Fire Girls Send Santa Overseas." During the summer months groups collect items from friends, parents, sponsors and civic groups so that by Oct. 15 all packages will be on their way to Friendship Groups and Pen Pals in other lands.

The items will be packed in small red stockings, ten to a box, and sent to a family or friends who will sponsor a party for ten children. Along with the gifts, letters will play an important part in establishing friendly relations.

Items being collected are: Jellies, pops, small stuffed toys, hair bows, puzzles, mittens, scarves, small dolls, paper hats, socks, balls, magnets, soaps, barrettes, handkerchiefs, sewing equipment, games, books, pens, pencils, paints, crayons, cards and pictures, gum, candy bars, inexpensive jewelry, pocket books, small dictionaries, stationery, neckties, address books, cosmetic cases and other items that children from 6 to 11 will enjoy.

The friendship shown in "Sending Santa Overseas" will carry out in one little way the principles of the United Nations and of UNESCO. (United Nations Economic and Social Council.)
